MAAO WORKSHOP TELEPHONE & WIRELESS UPDATE

Wednesday, Sept. 8, 2010

Wachusett Country Club

West Boylston, MA

9:00 AM to 1:00 PM

Morning Session: 8:30 Coffee, Program 9:00 - Noon

With the many recent court decisions revolving around the telephone and wireless industries, are you confused about what you are supposed to do next? Are you wondering which cases are completely settled and which are still under appeal? Are you wondering what, if anything, to do with any overlay money you have been saving since this all began? If so, this is a must-attend workshop for you. We have put together an awesome panel of experts who have been heavily involved in all of the recent ATB decisions, including the Bell Atlantic Mobil wireless exemption case, the MCI case involving the valuation of telephone personal property, and the Verizon land line case regarding the taxation of poles and wires over public ways.

Our very distinguished panel will consist of Attorney Anthony M. Ambriano, Attorney Richard Chmielinski, Attorney Daniel A. Shapiro, DOR Litigation Bureau, Attorney Kathleen Colleary, Chief of Municipal Finance Law Bureau, Attorney Gary Blau, Municipal Finance Law Bureau, and our MC for the workshop, Attorney Kenneth W. Gurge.

Noon – 1:00 A buffet lunch will be served

Three 3 credit hours will be awarded for attendance at the Workshop.

Registration information:

Please register before Sept. 3 in order for us to guarantee a meal count.

The cost for the workshop will be $50. You can register on-line at maao.org

Checks should be made payable to MAAO and sent to: MAAO, PO Box 70, Shrewsbury, MA 01545.
